Billing

You will be billed weekly for classes. Payment for all classes within the week is due before or at the first class.

Billing is based on enrollment, NOT attendance.

Withdrawal Policy

Clients who wish to discontinue lessons must complete a Class Withdrawal Form. If we receive a withdrawal form prior to the Wednesday of the week you will finish your current week of lessons, you will not be billed for the upcoming week. If we receive the form after the Wednesday of the week, you would already have been billed for the following week and will be enrolled in that class until the end of the following week. Please contact us with any medical or other emergencies which necessitates you forfeiting your space in class.

Make Up Policy

As part of summer weeklong classes and not our perpetual lessons, make-up classes are not provided.

Past Due or Declined Payments

Clients with Past Due payments or Declined cards will be notified via email. If the balance is not resolved within one week of the billing day, a $10 late fee will be applied to the account each week until fully paid. After the second week of past due payment, clients may be subject to an automatic withdrawal from the class.
